

LESSON ACTIVITY: History Unfolded

WORKSHEET: Article Analysis

NAME: _____

What is the name of the newspaper?	What is the city/state location of the newspaper?
What is the publication date of the newspaper issue?	What is the headline of the article?
What is the sub-headline of the article, if there is one?	Select the article type:
	News article Political Cartoon Editorial Letter to the Editor Opinion Piece Other
Does the article have a named author? If so, what name?	Is there a wire service byline: (AP), (UP), etc? (wire services like the Associated Press allowed local newspapers to print national and international stories without having to do their own reporting)
Provide a summary of the article in a few sentences, including names of people and events referenced in the article.
What does this article reveal about the information available to readers in the United States about the Nazi persecution of Jews?	